KSDPP Welcomes New Program Director

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 21 Kenténha/October, 2024) The Kahnawà:ke Diabetes Prevention Program (KSDPP) is pleased to announce the appointment of Coreen Delormier as their new Program Director. With over two decades of hands-on experience in building connections and fostering collaboration among businesses, organizations, and stakeholders, Coreen brings a wealth of expertise to this position.

"I am thrilled to join the KSDPP family," said Delormier. "As a pioneer in First Nations community participatory research, the organization has already made incredible strides in Diabetes education and awareness and has had lasting positive effects in our community. I look forward to leading the program into its next phase of growth and innovation to create meaningful, sustainable change that supports the health of our community."

Lisa Peterson, Chairperson of the Executive Committee, expressed her enthusiasm for Coreen's appointment, stating, "Coreen brings a wealth of knowledge and experience that will be invaluable to our efforts. Her leadership will be crucial in continuing our mission to empower our community with the tools and resources needed to prevent diabetes and promote healthy lifestyles."

Her community involvement extends beyond her professional career, having worked with several organizations and participated in national Indigenous conferences to enhance her knowledge of social, economic and health initiatives.

As Program Director, Coreen will bring strategic leadership, collaboration, and a deep commitment to community wellness. Her familiarity with Kahnawake's new community wellness initiatives and her dedication to ensuring that KSDPP aligns with best practices, making her an excellent fit for this role.

We are excited to see Coreen continue her outstanding work and helping us in achieving even greater success! Please join us in welcoming Coreen Delormier as she begins this exciting new chapter. For more information about the program and its initiatives, please visit ksdpp.org
